Data Availability Agreement

Authors must acknowledge our Data Availability Policy and state whether or not they can make their data available on our website. All data files must be received no later than August 30, 2019. Please include a completed PDF version of this form with your paper submission files.

Author(s):

Paper title:

Please check ONE of the following:

☐ I will provide all the data and programs used in my research, allowing them to be posted on the journal's website.

☐ I request an exemption from the data policy because my paper uses proprietary (or other third-party) data that I am not authorized to post. I have provided details in my data exemption statement below.

☐ Not relevant because no data are used in my paper.

Please provide a brief statement to specify your reason(s) for requesting an exemption from the Data Availability Policy. Authors who cannot post proprietary data are still required to supply a data.zip containing a readme file and any necessary programs. (Please note, exemptions are granted for papers developed with data belonging to a third party; exemptions can not be given to authors wishing to withhold data they hope to use elsewhere):
